Basic Latin Six/Eight

Here are some variations on a standard Latin 6/8. Practice them with RH on Cym and HH. Once you've got them learned, practice them with a metronome (up to m.m. 120) then try them with tunes. When the rhythms have a 3/4 feel they are notated to indicate it.

Master these exercises then write out a page of your own in your notebook.